VOLUNTEER?

Do you have a deep desire to help hurting women find peace, comfort, joy and victory in their life? Are you searching for a way to serve God and others? This ministry operates solely by volunteers. If you answered "yes" to the questions above, then you may want to prayerfully consider volunteering for the Clay County Center for Women's Ministries! Learn more at www.claycountycwm.com/volunteers.

HOW DO I GET A COUNSELING APPOINTMENT?

Call or stop by the CWM and make an appointment to meet with the Director who will pair you up with a peer counselor. Counseling sessions can be made outside of CWM office hours. All appointments are at CWM.

DO I HAVE TO BE A CHRISTIAN OR ATTEND CHURCH TO TAKE PART IN THE SERVICES OFFERED?

No. CWM welcomes all women regardless of their personal beliefs or affiliations. The focus of CWM is on providing all services in a non-judgmental atmosphere. As a non-profit ministry, our desire is to help ALL women in all walks of life to live healthy and happy lives!

HOW CAN I LEARN MORE ABOUT CWM?

Our website can be found at: www.claycountycwm.com/. The site includes important information about our mission, services provided, how you can volunteer and other ways to offer support to this ministry.

Visit us during office hours on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday 10am-4pm. We are located across from Clay City Center for Family Medicine and Clay City High School.
